

Achieving SDGs through technology innovation, deployment, and transfer

Date	9 November 2017
Time	10:30 - 12:00
Venue	Japan Pavilion, Bonn zone

How to achieve Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) through technology innovation, deployment, and transfer utilizing international/bilateral funds will be reported and discussed.

Sharing of case studies from key players in Asia, including the OECC's field activities on NDC development and project match making/horizontal expansion in Viet Nam, follow the framing presentation on UNU-IAS's research activities towards sustainable development.

Agenda

Framing presentation

“Towards achieving the SDGs through low carbon technology innovation, deployment, and transfer”

Prof. Dr. Kazuhiko Takemoto (Director of UNU-IAS / President of the OECC)

Session 1 : Case studies from key players

“Development of the GEF project in Cambodia: Low Carbon Development for Productivity and Climate Change Mitigation through the Transfer of Environmentally Sound Technology (TEST) Methodology project”

Mr. Sum Thy, Director of Climate Change Department, Ministry of Environment, Cambodia

“The JCM development in Indonesia and its evolution towards sustainable low-carbon growth cooperation”

Mr. Dicky Edwin Hindarto, Head of Indonesia JCM Secretariat

“Urban development of “FutureCity” Yokohama and the city-to-city collaborations”

Mr. Kimihiro Kuromizu, Executive Director for Climate Change Policy Headquarters, City of Yokohama

“OECC's field activities to enhance low-carbon technology transfer: NDC development and project match making in Viet Nam”

Mr. Makoto Kato, Principal Researcher / Ms. Yuriko Koyanagi, Researcher, OECC

Session 2 : Discussion session

Facilitator: Prof. Dr. Kazuhiko Takemoto (Director of UNU-IAS /President of the OECC)

Discussants: Mr. Dicky Edwin Hindarto, Head of Indonesia JCM Secretariat
Mr. Sum Thy, Director of Climate Change Department, Ministry of Environment, Cambodia
Mr. Kimihiro Kuromizu, City of Yokohama
Mr. Makoto Kato / Ms. Yuriko Koyanagi, OECC

LIGHT REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED after the event!