◆1. Information Updates -----

[1] New Column! “Basics of the JCM × Infographic: How many JCM pipeline projects are in progress?”

Series of infographic animation clips to explain basics of the JCM. The first clip is about the number of JCM pipeline projects. JCM started in 2013 and currently Japan and 17 partner countries are implementing the JCM. How many JCM pipeline projects are in progress? How much GHG reductions are expected from these projects?

[2] Joint Crediting Mechanism and Sustainable Development Goals Linkage Guidance (IGES)

JCM-SDGs linkage guidance can be utilized to identify and analyse how the JCM projects contribute to achieving the SDGs. It shows linkages between JCM project types and SDG Targets. Measuring JCM project contributions to the SDGs would support a company's internal communication and decision-making towards integration of the SDGs and business strategy. Furthermore, the JCM can be a strategic tool for building new business strategy centred on the SDGs concept.
