-- Gentle reminder on tomorrow side event: UNFCCC SB44 Side Event "The JCM: Achievements and current progress of projects implementation" –

The Overseas Environmental Cooperation Center, Japan (OECC) and the Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES) are hosting a side event at UNFCCC SB44 in Bonn, Germany with a support from the Ministry of the Environment, Japan (MOEJ) . This event will offer excellent opportunities to gather updated information regarding the JCM.

Date: Wednesday, 18 May 2016 - 13:15-14:45

Venue: Lounge, Art- and Exhibition Hall, Kunst- und Ausstellungshalle ( 9min walk from World Conference Center Bonn)

Outline: Japan and 16 partner countries are cooperatively developing and implementing the Joint Crediting Mechanism (JCM), which is one of international market based mechanisms in active operation. The recent progress, achievements and expectations on the implementation of the JCM will be reported and discussed. A framing presentation will be given by Mr. Niclas Svenningsen from the UNFCCC to share the updates on UNFCCC discussions on market mechanisms.

The agenda is available at:

The directions to the Art and Exhibition Hall (Bundeskunsthalle) are indicated in the 2nd page of the "Side Event Flyer". From the conference center, please go down the street to the U-bahn station Heussallee/Museumsmeile and turn left.

The venue is located in the same building of UNFCCC reception party last night.

Food and drink will be served for further exchange of views among the participants after the event.

For more information about our side event, please contact Mr. Jiro Miguel Ogahara at ogahara@oecc.or.jp .

We look forward to meeting you in Bonn.

Thank you.
